

I strongly encourage the continued support of the no call list. This has been an invaluable asset to my home. I am a full time working mother and with such a hectic schedule time with my kids in the evening is of utmost importance. My children no longer have to listen to their mother losing her temper after dealing with numerous nightly solicitations. It's bad enough I have to deal with the mail solicitation PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE keep the phone calls under control as they are today.